Court Preparing Charge to The Jury.

Five Hours Argument for Each Side.

Introduction of Testimony Ends Wednesday.

(By Associated Press)

Ardmore, Okla., March 16.—Introduction of testimony in the trial of Clara Hamon, charged with the murder of Jake L. Hamon, was completed after a brief morning session and court was recessed until three p. m. to permit Judge Thomas W. Champion to prepare his instructions to the jury.

Each side was allotted five hours for argument, and it was said that if the Judge had prepared his charge by the time court reconvened they will be gotten under way immediately.

The court will charge the jury on three points; murder, which upon conviction would carry a sentence of death or life imprisonment; first degree manslaughter, the sentence for which upon conviction would be from four years to life imprisonment; and second degree manslaughter with a minimum fine of $1.

S. P. Freeling, State Attorney General in charge of the prosecution, said that H. H. Brown, special prosecutor, would make the opening argument and that he, Freeling, would close for the state. Three of the defense attorneys will speak.

WITNESSES AT HAMON TRIAL. ACCUSED, SHOOTING SCENE

She had lived with Hamon for several years and had helped him rise from a poor man to wealth. She admits pointing a revolver at Hamon, but says she did so to halt him when he attacked her with a chair, the blow on her hand from the chair exploding the weapon. The state is seeking to prove she deliberately

GIRL OVERCOME BY GAS FUMES SLOWLY DYING

Louisville Girl is Unconscious 120 Hours

Unusual Case Attracts Wide Attention

(By Associated Press)

Louisville, Ky., March 16.—Miss Dorothy Smith, overcome by natural gas fumes more than 120 hours ago, was still unconscious this morning, and her chance of recovery is slight, according to physicians, pneumonia having developed yesterday.

The girl with her roommate, Miss Carolina Vurschmiede were discovered in a gas-filled room shortly before noon last Friday by their landlady. Both were unconscious at the time and have been continuously so since then.

Miss Vurschmiede is said to have a chance and is believed to be slowly regaining consciousness. A nurse at the hospital saw her slowly open her eyes yesterday and spoke to the young woman. She got no reply.

"Close your eyes if you understand" the nurse said, and the eyes were closed. "Now smile." Miss Vurschmiede was ordered. A faint smile came over her face. It was the first indication that her brain is functioning.

And yet, physicians said, she is unconscious. Her brain is dead at times, physicians claim.

TAX PROGRAM STRIKES SNAG DEFEAT AHEAD

(By Associated Press)
Columbus, March 16.—The entire legislative tax program advocated by the exponents of the uniform rule appeared to be doomed tonight.

Two measures had been defeated outright in the house of representatives and one had been sent back to committee where its doom is considered sealed. Three remaining measures to be voted upon tomorrow are expected to meet a similar fate.

The strength presented by the uniform rule advocates served to dampen the spirits of those favorable to the program recommended by Governor Davis' taxation committee.

Several members expressed the belief it would be impossible to enact any sort of a taxation program at this time.

REQUIRE GERMANY TO PAY AT ONCE

PLAN BILL TO INSURE ARIDITY OF THIS STATE

Measure May Nullify Palmer's Recent Opinion

May Go Further Than Beer And Wine

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., March 16.—Enactment of an Ohio statute that would nullify in this state the ruling of former Attorney General Palmer which permits the prescription of beer as medicine is expected to be requested of the state legislature immediately.

James A. White, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League, would not say whether the bill will seek to prohibit the prescription of only beer and wine, or whether it would go even further and prohibit the prescription of all alcoholic liquors.

When the bill is finally drafted it is understood that it probably will be introduced in the Senate by Senator Burke, of Lorain county, chairman of the standing Temperance Committee, and rushed through as an emergency measure.

If this is done so far as prohibition enforcement in Ohio is concerned it will make little difference whether Mr. Palmer's ruling stands or is withdrawn by Attorney General Daugherty of the Volstead act is amended to prohibit the prescription of beer, dry leaders say.

WIRES ARE CUT AROUND DUBLIN

ARGUMENT IS WAIVED BY THE DEFENSE

(By Associated Press)

Ardmore, Oklahoma, March 16.—The defense in the case of Clara Smith Hamon surprised the state and the court late today by waiving its right of argument and asking immediate submission of the case to the jury after H. H. Brown, special prosecutor, had completed the opening argument for the prosecution.

Court adjourned until tomorrow to give the state time to look into the law as the proceeding was unusual.

Allies Demand Twenty Billion Marks by May 1st

Can Pay in Goods if Money Not Available is Intimation

Germany Virtually Refuses To Pay Balance

Paris, March 16.—The Allied Reparations' Commission in its note to Germany demanding fulfillment of article 235 of the peace treaty notified the German government it must pay one billion gold marks before March 23rd, it was announced today.

The money must be deposited in the Bank of France, Bank of England or the Federal Reserve Bank in the United States, Germany was told.

It must complete the payment of 20,000,000,000 gold marks by May 1st. The commission gave Germany until April 1st to submit a proposal to pay the balance of the twenty billion marks otherwise than in cash.

Germany may submit a plan for a foreign loan by April 1st, the proceeds of which shall be payable to the commission. The commission announced that Germany had virtually refused to pay the balance, asserting the twenty billion marks had been fully paid.

It was predicted by farm organization representatives meeting here today.

GRAIN ALCOHOL ALONE WANTED

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, March 16.—Former Attorney General Palmer's ruling that beer may be prescribed as medicine was responsible for the introduction to day in the state legislature of a bill providing that only pure grain alcohol may be prescribed by Ohio physicians.

Not only would the prescription of liquor other than pure alcohol be prohibited but its manufacture and sale also would be prohibited.

ALLIES HAVE DOUBLE REASON

(By Associated Press)

Washington, March 16.—Inclusion by the allied reparations commission of the American Federal Reserve banks as an optional depository for German indemnity payments brought from treasury officials tonight that the commission possibly had two purposes in view.

First: To enable the German Government to call upon "vast credits" which it is said to hold through private agents in the United States.

Second: To employ in favor of the allied governments the tremendous difference in exchange rates.

MINSTREL PLAYS TO FULL HOUSE ON FIRST NIGHT

Paul H. Hughey Post Scores Stage Success.

Local Talent Wins Deserved Praise In Difficult Roles.

With the high school auditorium packed until standing room only was available the American Legion, Paul H. Hughey Post No. 25 won limitless success in its first presentation of minstrelsy Tuesday evening.

Two parts made up the two hour program of mirthful entertainment. The first was devoted to choruses and ballads, richly sprinkled with the cleverest of witticisms in the darky dialect. The olio brought forth five acts of vaudeville that were highly deserving of the applause which followed each one and which called the artist back to the footlights.

Twenty-five well known local men who have been prominent in former amateur theatricals and minstrels, formed the company. That every part was carried through in finished manner was the source of merited compliment.

The minstrel was staged under the direction of Charles O. Updyke. His experience in work of this character and his many appearances on the stage readily fitted him to direct the program and also to take the part of interlocutor.

Must credit centers around C. S. Haver. As one of the musical directors he had the vocal instruction in charge and this feature of the minstrel was pronounced.

James Whelpley's part in the preparation of the minstrel added the finishing touch. His musical direction was that of the trained artist. The Whelpley Orchestra gave perfect accompaniment.

PART ONE

The curtain rose upon a scene that brought forth instant applause. A score of colorado maduro gentlemen, in dress suits, were seated beneath a vine covered trellis. Eight end men ludicrously attired in dress suits of exclamation mark and design, flanked the sides. In the center on a chair of rich upholstery, Charles Updyke as conversationalist, was a handsome and imposing interlocutor in Colonial attire. His perfect ease of manner afforded effective contrast, offsetting the jocularity of his assistants.

In the role of end men were Perce Pearce, Dutch Craig, Harry Bliss, Teck Clasgens, Earl Binns, Emory Chapman, and Dick Haynes. Dr. Thomas G. Beem was not present for the first night's showing.

The chorus and ballad work of the company was especially good. Genuine black cork artists of professional ability, Perce Pearce gave, "Save a Little Dram For Me." Dutch Craig gave "When I See All the Lovin' They Waste On Babies." "Never Let No Woman Worry Your Mind" was the subject of Teck Clasgens' melody. Earl Binns, in "Don't Take Away Those Blues" and Dick Haynes, with "Sweet Ballads struck a note of favor. They Mamma" were two good numbers. were, "Old Irish Mother of Mine," William J. Smith; "Sweet Miss Mary," Maynard Craig; "When the Harbor Lights Are Burning," Guy W. Clellan; "Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold," Rankin Paul; "Old Fashioned Garden," Adam Bernhard; "Down The Trail to Home Sweet Home," R. R. Kibler. Assisting in these numbers were, William Kidd, Burris Tharp, Clifford Ervin, W. E. Passmore, E. L. Williams, William Turner, Charles Rinehart, Frank Ellis and C. S. Haver.

Guy W. Clellan, Maynard Craig, Rankin Paul, and R. R. Kibler appeared also as a quartet, their splendid numbers adding much to the program.

PART TWO

An entirely different phase of minstrelsy was taken up in the olio and in this half a dozen acts of vaudeville gave excellent opportunity for the work of separate artists.

"Midnight Mystic Steps" found Harry Bliss in the role of dancer. Upon a background of tombstones, Bliss gave a demonstration of weird steps. His costume created the impression that a human skeleton appeared to be taking the part, and his dancing was taking and out of the ordinary.

The Dixie Musical Four was a quartet of voices that blended well in two selections that were heavily encored. Its members were G.W. Clellan, Maynard Craig, Perce Pearce and C. S. Haver.

Prof. Laryngitis & Co. Novelty Ventriloquists, headed the third act in which the part of professor was taken by Teck Clasgens and the part of "Tom" by Dutch Craig. Their sketch was entirely original and was one of the feature acts of the program.

Walter Larrimer, who has had experience in professional appearances, gave a music specialty. His selections on the xylophone showed that he is a true artist on this difficult instrument.

In the grand finale an "Alabama Moon Picnic" brought out the entire company. The scene consisted of the colored "ladies" with their strutting beaux. The feminism portrayed by those who took the role of women characters was of special aptitude.

Those taking parts were Martha White, Dutch Craig; Sweet Mamma, Earl Binns; Eliza Jackson, Burris Tharp; Phoebe Snow, Emory Chapman; Sammie Lee, Billie Smith; Petroleum Brown, Teck Clasgens; Excess Lawson, Harry Bliss; Sawdust Jones, Frank Ellis; Roaring Bill, Dick Haynes.

The entertainment closed with the happy reunion of Roaring Bill and Sweet Mamma.

The second appearance of the play will be given at the high school auditorium Wednesday night and the ticket sale has been heavy. Three additional appearances have been booked, Friday March 18th, at Sabina; Monday, March 21st, at Greenfield; and Friday, March 25th, at Jeffersonville.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

That Dependable Ford Quality

Ford durability began back in 1903 when Henry Ford started experimenting with Vanadium steel and heat-treating processes. He knew that a mere exact tempering of steel for motor car building must be worked out. Vanadium, it was learned, when added to molten steel, gives to that steel a greater toughness and adhesiveness. And now other alloys have been found which are superior to Vanadium. With the Ford Motor Company constant progress is the daily companion. The Ford products—Car, Truck, Tractor—grow in quality daily. Heat-treating tempers each part so that it will best withstand the wear or tear to which it is subjected. Ford chemists and analysts have created formulas and standard specifications for every individual part of the Ford car—not only for the steel but for everything from pneumatic tires to top.

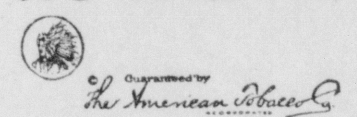

Ford durability isn't a matter of accident, it is a matter of painstaking thoroughness in laboratory and factory. The Ford is a car of precision—of standardized values. Order your Ford car now. No matter how fast they may be made the demand multiplies faster. Order today for we can make fairly prompt deliveries—Runabout, Touring Car, Coupe, Sedan, Truck and Fordson Tractor.

GREAT DEMAND FOR RESIDENCES

There is still a great demand for residences in this city, and prices of realty have changed little in the last two or three years as result of the heavy demand. However, comparatively few houses have been changing hands.

The great demand is for houses to rent, and whenever a man advertises one for rent he is literally swamped with applicants. One man recently had upward of three score applications when he advertised a house for rent.

Meanwhile plans are being made to build many homes during the present year to meet the steadily increasing demand.

Now Then, What?

The city council has finally taken definite action, looking to the adjustment of the electric light and power rate controversy, by passing, at its Monday night session, an ordinance fixing the rate schedule under which, if accepted, consumers will pay.

The rates fixed in the ordinance, passed Monday night are practically the same as those presented to the city, in a proposed compromise offer, last summer only which barely "squeezed" through council only to be vetoed by Mayor Dahl. The present ordinance bears the sanction of Mayor Dahl's signature.

Very well and very good.

What the result will be now depends on whether the gas and electric company proves as obstinate, now that they, apparently, hold the whip hand by reason of the higher rate established by commission ruling and court injunction, as the city council has been during the last passed eighteen months or more.

Conditions have changed since last August when the same proposal now urged by council was urged by the company, notably the change in the occupant of the vantage position in the controversy.

It is to be regretted that, while council was engaged in framing a compromise offer, it did not include the natural gas rate controversy and get the whole matter ironed out at once.

It is possible for several rather disagreeable entanglements to result, even after the enactment of the ordinance unless both contenders sincerely drop all hostile feeling and get down to a business understanding.

Notwithstanding the hang-over of the gas rate controversy, the utility company is now, it seems, given a square offer proposal which can be accepted and we believe it will be. If the electricity rates are amicably adjusted we believe that, harmony on that branch restored, a final agreement on the gas rate, just, under all the circumstances, to all parties concerned, will be easily reached.

At any rate it seems, without waiting for expert opinion, that the company has been given a splendid opportunity to rise to the occasion and prove the sincerity of its declarations of desire to do the fair thing.

We shall see what we shall see.

Governor Davis

The people of Ohio rather like the way Governor Harry L. Davis is taking hold of the affairs of state.

Already he has incurred the opposition and, in some instances, the open enmity of the politicians and that in itself is an indication that the Governor has some ideas regarding service for the people which interferes with the plans of office seekers, political hangers-on and interest men who live by special favors extended.

The truth about the matter is that Governor Davis is unusually free from obligation to the old line political leaders. He was nominated at the primaries and elected in November in spite of and not because of their efforts.

One thing is certain—Governor Davis has some ideas of his own which he is seeking to establish as law in Ohio and he has not allowed the politicians to censor his program nor has he asked their advice in its formation.

Palmer's Ruling May Stand

Treasury officials and the prohibition law enforcement corps are reforming their plans to deal with the new order which will obtain under the ruling made by the former Attorney General Palmer.

There seems no question of the revolutionary changes in conditions which the opinion causes. Breweries and distilleries can proceed with the manufacture of whiskey, wine and beer, under that ruling, it seems, in unlimited quantities. So long as the intoxicants are not manufactured for beverage purposes they are entirely within the law.

Prohibition enforcement officials and temperance organizations have promised the public and promised themselves that with the stock on hand reduced materially or entirely exhausted, better results would follow. Consequently they have looked forward with eagerness to the day when the stock on hand could be checked up and controlled.

Now, with the probability that the present quantity will be maintained, possibly increased, and with the bridge off of physicians, the task enforcement officials face may well cause discouragement.

MARCH WINDS

They voice Appollo's kindest sentiments
And reinforced thereby he frees the pool
From icy conquerors, destroys that rule

Which trampled Autumn under foot then hence
Blithely they bluster to responsive lake,
"Meadow, and garden, pasture, field
and brook,
So rough in action that except we look
Never might we unto their mission wake.

Blow, blow, impetuous powers, blow
Our eyes, half languid on a day behold
Spring wide awake upon a marigold;
Until we hear with joy's immortal thrill
A thousand Springs forever new and old
Sing in the wonder of a warbler's bill!

WASHINGTON CITY MAY BE SCENE OF A SECOND PARIS CONGRESS

League Delegates Will Find Task Easier if They Come Here

American Public Wants Negotiations Carried On Openly Without Diplomatic Secrecy

BY MARK SULLIVAN
(Copyright 1921)

Washington, March 16.—The senate will probably adjourn today, and what is said here aims to be a summing up of our situation as regards peace with Germany, the League of Nations, and our foreign affairs generally at a time when one chapter is about to close and another cannot be opened until the senate meets again in April.

To the procession of reporters who have entered his office during the past week Senator Knox has said that he has not changed his position about his resolution for a separate peace with Germany, and that he still intends to introduce it in substantially the same form in which he read it to Mr. Harding at Marion on January 1, and gave it to the public on the same day.

But while Senator Knox's reiteration has been consistent, it has been apparent that their has been on his part an increasing disposition to end the interview with a deprecatory gesture meant to imply that, "of course, I only speak for myself."

Knox's Resolution

If Senator Knox still expects to bring about a separate peace with Germany in the near future, he most certainly does speak for himself alone. It is true that one of the subtle aspects of Senator Knox's move lies in the fact that it is cast not in the form of a treaty but in the form of a resolution. It can, therefore, be passed by a simple majority of the Senate and without a two-thirds vote.

Also it is conceivable that if a sharp issue should arise between the senate and the President, Senator Knox might command the following of enough senators to put his resolution through.

But the truth is no such rift on the foreign policy is likely to arise between Harding and the senate, and the project for a separate peace with Germany is not likely to take on any vitality, certainly not for a considerable time and not until several other things have happened and some other things have been attempted. For this likelihood, while there are several reasons, no better reason need be given than, in the words of a friend of the Administration, "the present psychology is not favorable to it."

So long as the amount of German reparations and the other issues between Germany and the Allies remain undecided a movement towards separate peace with Germany on our part would have effects so obviously unfavorable to the Allies to the situation of the world that it will be avoided by general assent on the part of both the senate and the administration.

For the same reason the public can take it for granted that there is nothing in the report, recently emphasized both abroad and at home, that a special commission, representing the new administration, is about to go to Europe under the leadership of Elihu Root. Previous to March 4, and especially during the campaign and about the time of the election, there was much talk of such a project, and President Harding himself made allusions to it which might reasonably have been interpreted as a vague expression of intention on his part.

Conditions Changed

But conditions have changed. What is now much more likely to happen is the reverse.

In the course of time we are likely to receive in Washington several individuals and delegations representing European nations, and possibly representing the League of Nations as a league. It may readily happen during the course of the coming months that Washington will be the scene of conferences which in their importance will be only less spectacular than the Peace Conference itself.

If foreign diplomats in Washington are as quick to grasp the atmosphere of Washington as the newspaper men are, they must have observed that in the building of the new bridge between ourselves and our late Allies it is better that Washington should be the location of the conversations and negotiations than that they should take place on the scene

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

The Washington Court House Shrine Club made its debut in the role of entertainer Tuesday night at a dinner-dance at the Masonic Temple that recorded itself one of the conspicuously brilliant successes of many elaborate affairs in the city's social calendar, and attained in their initial function a prestige in accord with the pre-eminence of the order.

From its very inception every thing went off with a whirl, the elaborate plans promoted by the social session club providing a series of happy episodes, launched with the dinner at half past six o'clock; the ensemble creating an evening of gaiety and pleasure altogether distinctive and out of the ordinary.

The immense banquet hall was transformed into a scene all brilliancy and beauty, the vivid yellows and reds prevailing in the decorations lending a touch of the Oriental, suggestive of the Ancient mystic order. Multi-colored incandescent bulbs flashed from fanciful wall trellises of flowers and greenery and orange flower shades, with festoons of flowers pendant, screened the overhead lights. At one end of the hall the Shrine emblem blazed its colors from a frame of greenery.

The tables, running the entire length, were beautifully decorated in potted flowers in gorgeous bloom and ferns and the red Fezzes of the Nobles strikingly effective in the colorful picture.

A hundred and seventy were served with an elaborate dinner, admirably planned in its delicious viands and well served courses. The favors, cunning little camels, one of the favorite shrine emblems, made a special hit and numerous accessories out of the usual were featured. The last course was a delicious frozen cream, specially made and donated by the Sunlight Creameries.

Between courses cabaret entertainment was furnished by the evening's orchestra, the immensely popular O'Briens Peerless Quintet. These clever er musicians richly entertained in true cabaret fashion, responding to incessant encores, and added immeasurably to the pleasure of the dinner.

With the serving of the coffee, Noble Noll Hathaway, President of the local Shrine Club, introduced Noble E. L. Bush, Vice President of the Club, and Chairman of the social committee who made a felicitous little speech, welcoming the guests to the Shrine Clubs' "first party" and promising that this was only the start of many club plans.

While the hall was being cleared for the dance the guests were royally entertained in the Lodge room with one of the best picture shows possible to secure—"Lying Lips." For this, through the influence of manager R. J. McLean, of the Palace, the Shrine Club was indebted to Noble J. Maurice Johnson, of the Associated Producers Co., of Cincinnati, who had booked this film at a cost of $2,500 and donated it in compliment to this club of Aladdin Shriners. Miss Martha McCoy played delightfully throughout the showing of the picture.

At its close Noble Hathaway, assisted by Noble Charles Brown, Secretary, conducted a drawing through which the beautiful flowers decorating the tables, were presented to women holding the lucky numbers—the idea novel and taking.

Then on with the dance! Never was the light fantastic more joyously tripped the music most alluring and the musicians adding zest by mingling with the dancers as the merry throng swayed to the rhythm.

The social session committee, Nobles Bush, Hathaway, Brown, Hicks and Rodgers, were continuously congratulated upon the success of the arrangements and the way all details were carried out.

Mrs. Arthur Pyley had the splendid catering in charge.

The club was much indebted to the Frank L. Stutsen Co., which furnished all the decorations, barring those on the table, and whose display manager Mr. Sherrell Clark, personally attended to their wonderfully artistic arrangement. The wives of the committee decorated the tables.

The number of Shriners attending from other cities was large.

The following out of town Nobles were present with their ladies: J. Thompson, of Zanesville; McKinley Kirk, Doctor O. J. Moon, Galen Kirk, A. R. Morgan, Charles Kirk, D. H. Rathe, New Holland; M. J. Spinks, C. B. Swain, M. E. Painter, B. F. Carpenter, Frank Skimming of Wilmington; A. O. Horney E. F. Grimm, Warner Straley, A. O. Allen, of Jeffersonville; J. W. Campbell of Atlanta; Fred Putnam, Virgil App of Frankfort, H. R. Alkire, F. S. Alkire, Palmer Hewitt, O. N. Bestwick, Eugene Alkire, H. W. Campbell, Carl Hurst, L. J. Hurst, E. G. Carpenter of Mt. Sterling; J. C. Hunt, J. W. Millholland, of London; Glenn Hankins of Columbus; C. C. Hewitt, or Sedalia; E. H. Moorehouse of Greenfield; G. S. Cameron, of Chillicothe.

Plans for the Easter Bazaar to be given at the K. of P. Castle the Friday before Easter, the twenty-fifth, by the Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisters are progressing splendidly. It will be an all day bazaar, with cafeteria lunch at noon and all day sale of home baking and country produce. A fish pond will be an added attraction. In the evening there will be a dance, for which Harvey's orchestra will furnish the music.

The Cecilian program presented at the club rooms, Tuesday afternoon, was a very extraordinary one with several deferred numbers made up. The feature of the afternoon was a piano duet—Overture Op. 38—Goldmark given by Mrs. Lillie G. Davis and Mrs. Elva H. Kelley. This very difficult number was rendered with fine technique and musical understanding, and the club women showed appreciation in unusual applause. Other numbers artistically rendered were:

Songs—Birdling ..... Chopin
The lorette ..... Liszt
Miss Edith H. Gardner
Piano—Polonaise ..... Chopin
Mrs. Lulu H. Sheets
Song—Tiny Roses ..... Cesek

BACKACHE OF WOMEN

The back is often called the main-spring of a woman's life. What can she do, where can she go, so long as that deadly backache saps every particle of her strength and ambition? She cannot walk, she cannot stand, her household is a burden, or the long hours behind the counter, in the office or factory are crushing. She is miserable. The cause is many times some derangement of her system, and backache is a common symptom. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a reliable remedy for backache, as for more than forty years it has been relieving women of America from the ailments which often cause it.

TRAFFIC POSTS PAINTED WHITE

So that they will be seen more easily the ornamental traffic zone posts at the intersections of North, Fayette and Main street with Court street were painted plain white Wednesday afternoon, by the police department.

All precaution is being taken against the posts being knocked down a second time by careless automobile drivers.

With their large red globes and white posts the traffic guides now present a very neat and attractive appearance.

The Red globes on the post cost $32 each.

WIND AND HAIL STRIKE COUNTY

A severe wind and hail storm swept over part of Northern Fayette about ten o'clock Tuesday night, and hailstones of unusual size fell in some sections, while the wind did much damage.

The hail fell for some ten minutes and in several instances windows were broken by the hail.

The windstorm seemed to be worse immediately north of Bloomingburg, where a small streak was swept across for a distance of several miles. The strip was only a few hundred yards in extent, and where it crossed the Bloomingburg and Midway and the Danville pikes telephone poles were blown flat, eight poles being carried down on the Midway pike and five on the Danville road.

Several trees were uprooted and buildings damaged slightly. A great deal of lightning accompanied the hail, wind and rain.

CHILLICOTHE MAY RESURFACE STREETS

As a result of a visit to Chillicothe of D. J. Spindler, of The Andrew Asphalt Paving Company, which resurfaced the up-town streets of this city as well as built several others, Chillicothe may resurface the bad brick streets in her up-town section.

Some of her streets in the up-town section have been notoriously rough for years, and are rapidly becoming worse.

Spindler, cited the work in this city which is familiar to some of the Chillicothe councilmen.

"IT'S GOT WORLD BEAT," HE SAYS

Akron Man And Wife Are Both Restored To Health By Taking Tanlac

"My wife and I are great advocates of Tanlac now and call it our family medicine," said J. S. McGlone, 129 Market St., Akron, Ohio, well known employee of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

"My wife and I have both been in bad health for a year or more, suffering from stomach trouble. Every time I ate anything I nearly always wished I hadn't touched a bite, for I would turn almost deathly sick at my stomach. Even a glass of water upset my stomach and at night I couldn't get any rest hardly and often had terrible nightmares. Dizzy spells struck me at times and I couldn't catch hold of anything I would fall to the floor."

"My wife had indigestion so bad she couldn't enjoy a single meal. She had little or no appetite was all run down and so weak it would nearly break her down trying to do the housework."

"We started taking Tanlac at the same time and both of us commenced improving so fast it seemed like a race between us to see which one would get well first. We took four bottles apiece and today we are in the best of health. She can do the housework with ease and looks like a different person. I have the finest kind of an appetite, eat anything I like and feel as spry and healthy as when I was a boy. We are both only too glad to speak a good word for Tanlac. It's got the world beat, that's all."

LINOW TO MEET FAMOUS GREEK

Columbus, March 16.—What likely will be the climax of the wrestling season in Columbus will be the two matches that are ahead for central Ohio devotees of this sport. Next Friday night, Geo. Kotsionaros will take on the big Russian, Ivan Linow in a two fall to a finish match with a good line of preliminaries to precede this main attraction in which two matmen who haven't much love for each other will come to grips.

On April 4, Earl Caddock has agreed to come here for a finish match with Kotsionaros for the light heavyweight championship of the world. Caddock still holds this title and for a few years has the heavy weight championship besides in spite of his 189 pounds being against him in the hard matches.

FIRST ASSEMBLY FOR M COMPANY

Two Recruits Swell Company to 62 and Another Will be Added This Week.

First formation for M Company, Fourth Regiment, O. N. G., was held at Memorial Hall Tuesday evening.

Two recruits were enrolled with the addition of Robert Powless and Eugene Cameron. These two men bring the roster of the company to 62 men and three officers. Another man a member of the Greenfield company and who is living here, will be transferred to the local organization this week. It is understood.

The first formation brought out instruction in the school of the soldier and the company was assembled as a unit under the direction of the officers.

Arrangements were made for outfitting the company.

The officers, Captain Henry D. Smith, First Lieutenant Edward L. Williams, and Second Lieutenant Charles Moorhead were highly pleased with the appearance of the company.

Because of the fact that a large per cent of the non-commissioned officers are ex-service men but little time will be required in whipping the company into shape, it is believed.

Other valuables bring the total to something over $11,200.
